THE

WESTERN JOURNAL,

OF

AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURES, MECHANIC ARTS,
INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT, COMMERCE,

AND

GENERAL LITERATURE.

Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts are the basis of Civilization.

M. TARVER & T. F. RISK,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

VOL. II.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY.

ST. LOUIS:
PRINTED AT THE ST. LOUIS UNION OFFICE, 35 LOCUST STREET.

1849.

HC101
.W5

47279
'04

THE LIBRARY
OF CONGRESS

GENERAL INDEX

TO THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE WESTERN JOURNAL.

ARTICLES BY THE SENIOR EDITOR.

PAGE

A System of Internal Improvement for the West, . . . . . 3
Improvement of Time, . . . . . 54
St. Louis—Its Early History, . . . . . 71
Cultivation of Grapes in Missouri, . . . . . 127
Sheep Husbandry, . . . . . 131
Increase in the Quantity of Gold—Its effects, . . . . . 141
Western Policy, . . . . . 212
Commercial Prospects of 1849, . . . . . 281
The Economy of Social Combinations—Missouri Law of Corporations, . 354
Iowa—Its Resources, . . . . . 375

BY THE JUNIOR EDITOR.

Association of Labor and Skill—Mechanics' Institute, . . . . . 298
Geological Survey of Missouri, . . . . . 333

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Commerce of the East, by J. Loughborough, a member of the St. Louis Bar, . . . . . 9, 18, 105, 148
Rise, Progress, and Influence of the Fine Arts, by Alfred S. Waugh, Esq., St. Louis, Mo., . . . . . 29
Education, by John H. Tice, Esq., St. Louis, Mo., . . . . . 34
Bon Harbor—Its Advantages for Manufacturing, by Robert Triplett, Esq., of Kentucky, . . . . . 86
Free Trade, by Hon. Adam Beatty, of Kentucky . . . . . 121
Education—Intellectual Discipline of Schools, by Joseph Ormrod, Esq., of Boon county, Mo., . . . . . 162, 168, 217, 226, 324
Relative Value of Stone Coal and Cord Wood, by H. Smith, Esq., of Kentucky, . . . . . 175
Building and Building Materials, by B. A. Alderson, Esq., of St. Charles, Missouri, . . . . . 178
Cultivation of Sumach, by Geo. B. Davidson, Esq., of Galena, Ill., . . . 181
Missouri Wine, by Alexander Kayser, Esq., of St. Louis, Mo., . . . 184
Natural History of Man, by P. E. Bland, Esq., member of the St. Louis Bar, 235
Scottish Agriculture, by Geo. B. Davidson, of Galena, Ill., . . . 254, 302
Pacific Railway Route through Missouri, by Wm. R. Singleton, Esq., Engineer on the Independence and Missouri River Railroad, . . . 292
History of the American Fur Company, by J. Loughborough, Esq., a member of the St. Louis Bar, . . . . . 305, 313, 365
Pacific Railway, by J. Loughborough, Esq., a member of the St. Louis Bar, . . . . . 386

GENERAL INDEX.

PAGE.

AGRICULTURE.—Vide Improvement of Time, - - - - - - 54
Cultivation of Sumach, - - - 181
Agriculture in Scotland, - 254 to 302
Agricultural Chemistry, - - 258
Do. School, - - - 234
AIX LA CHAPELLE, Treaty of - 72
AMERICAN FUR TRADE, History of - - - - - 305 to 365
APPLE TREES, How to change the bearing years, - - - - - 266
ARGILLO, - - - - - - 210
ARTS.—The rise, progress, and influence of the fine arts, - - -
Association of labor and skill, Mechanics' Institute - - - 29 298
ADDRESS to the patrons of the Western Journal, - - - - - 350
BANK of the State of Missouri, Report for the year 1848, - - 205
BANKING SYSTEM of Massachusetts, number of banks, and amount of capital, - - - 356
BEAUTY.—Emotions of beauty, were designed to harmonize the feelings and affections with the laws of nature, - - - 54
BOATS.—Arrival of steam boats at St. Louis, in each month in 1847 and 1848. Amount of tonnage. Number of steam boats owned in St. Louis. Number of boats engaged in the St. Louis trade, - 135
Number of steam boats built in St. Louis in 1848, - - 135 209
Boats built at Cincinnati and other points on the Ohio river in 1838 - 68
Arrival of the first steam boat at St. Louis, - - - - - - 80
Increase of steam boats and steam boat tonnage, on the western waters, - - - - - 91
BON HARBOR, Its advantages for Manufacturing, - - - 86
BREAD STUFFS.—Vide commercial prospects of 1849, - - - 282
Quantity of bread stuffs and provisions, exported from the United States to all countries, in 1847 and 1848, - - - - - - - 286
Exports to Great Britain, in 1847 and 1848, - - - - - 287—8
BUILDING and building materials, 178

PAGE.

CANALS. — Ancient Indian canal, uniting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, - - - - - - 14
Sundry schemes for uniting the Atlantic and Pacific by canals, since the discovery of America, - - 15
Ancient canal, connection between the Nile and Red Sea, - - 156
New York State Canals, amount of tolls collected each year since 1820, - - - - - - 68
Illinois and Michigan canal, date of opening and closing, number of boats, amount of receipts, finances, &c., - - - - - 276
CHINA.—Treaty with Russia. Annual amount of the overland trade between Russia and China, - - 12
Empire of China, population, products, rivers, islands, and commerce, - - - - - - 150
CINCINNATI.—Public schools, - 40
Commerce of, - - - - - 341
Vide railroads, pork packing, &c.,
CLAUDE LORAINE, - - - - 30
COAL.—Quantity received in St. Louis in 1848, - - - 136
Relative value of stone-coal and wood, for fuel on steam boats, estimates of the relative value of coal and wood, by Professor Johnson. Experiment by Capt. Carlisle on steamer Marshal Ney. Description of the coal bed at Bon Harbor, its quality, 99 to 103
Coal in Iowa, - - - - 378
Imports of coal under the tariff of 1842 and 1846, - - - - 274
COFFEE.—Imports into St. Louis for 5 years, - - - - - - 132
COINS and coinage of the United States, - - - - - 139
Coinage at the Mint of the United States in the several denominations of coin, from the commencement of its operations, until Dec. 31, 1847, - - - - - 198
Annual amount of Gold deposited for coinage at the Mint and Branches, from the Mines of the United States, - - - - 202
Coinage of the British Mint, - - 203

PAGE.

Average yearly coinage of the principal governments in Europe, - 203
Statistics of British coin and bullion 203
Increase of Gold, its effect on values 141 204
Coinage of the United States in 1848, - - - - - 274
COMMERCE. — Commerce of the East, its history, 9 to 28, 105, 148
Commerce of St. Louis, - - 132 to 136, vide 337
Commerce of Cincinnati, - - 341
Do. do. Lexington, Mo., - 206
Do. do. Glasgow, Mo., - 208
Do. do. Peoria, Ill., - - 267
Do. do. Weston, Mo., - - 269
Do. do. Galena, Ill., - - 339
COMMERCIAL STATISTICS.—Imports and exports of St. Louis for 5 years, - - - 122—3
Comparative monthly prices for 5 years, of flour, - - - 134
Of wheat, - - - - - 134
Of corn, - - - - - 134
Of hemp, - - - - - 134
Of lead, - - - - - - 135
Quantity of lumber, coal, wood, and hay, received in St. Louis in 1848, 136
Prices of iron and steel in Liverpool, from 1817 to 1849, - - 272
Imports of iron and coal, under the tariffs of 1842 and 1846, - - 274
Imports into the United States, and imports consumed, exclusive of specie, during each fiscal year, from 1821 to 1848. The domestic and foreign exports and tonnage employed during the same period, 275
Import of bread stuffs and provisions into Great Britain for eleven months, ending 6th Dec., 1847 and 1848, - - - - - 282
Exports of provisions and bread stuffs from the United States to all countries, in the years 1847 and 1848, - - - - - 286
Quantity exported to Great Britain in 1847 and 1848, - - 287
Comparative receipts of 16 leading articles of produce at St. Louis, in the first 4 months in the years 1847 and 1849, - - - - - 337
Commercial College of St. Louis. 439
COMMERCIAL LAW. — Privileged creditors. Advances made to the captain of a vessel in her home port, even though the money be applied to privileged claims, gives no privilege to the lender. Hyde & Oglesby vs. steam boat Yazoo 188

PAGE.

CONVENTS and female academies, under the direction of the Roman Catholics in St. Louis, - - 82
CORN. — Quantity received in St. Louis for 5 years, - - 132
Quantity exported, - - - 133
Comparative prices for 5 years, - 134
Comparative receipts for the first 4 months of 1848 and 1849, - - 337
Product of corn in Iowa, - - 378
CORPORATIONS.—General law for establishing corporations in Missouri, - - 353 to 358
COTTON manufacturing in St. Louis. Manufacture of cotton batting in St. Louis, - - - - 69
Cotton factory at Bon Harbor, Ky., 97
Cotton mills at Cannelton, Indiana, 139
Facilities for manufacturing cotton in Iowa, - - - - - 380
Practical hints on the cost and production of cotton, by C. T. James, 348
Cotton bagging imports, - - 132
Do. do. exports, - - 133
Cotton yarns imports, - - 132
DES MOINES river improvement, - 380
DISTANCES, from Memphis, from St. Louis, and from prairie Du Chien to the Pacific and to Changhae in China, - - - - - - 120
Comparative distances from Liverpool and New York to Calcutta and other places in the east by the way of Cape Good Hope, Cape Horn and Panama, - - - 160
Dubuque population 384
ECONOMY of social combinations, - 353
EDUCATION. — System of public schools in the several states, and amount raised for public schools, in each, - - - - - - 37
Constitution and laws in respect to public schools in several states of the Union, - - 38, 39 and 54
Amounts appropriated to public schools in Boston and other cities- 41
Value of school lands in St. Louis, - 41
Estimate of the means of education in Mo. cost of tuition in Boston and other places, - - - 42
Female teaching in Mass. - - 46
Normal schools, - - - 47
Court of school commissioners, - 51
Institute for teachers District libraries, - - - 52
EDUCATION.—A series of papers by Joseph Ormrod, Esq., on the nature and effects of physical and mental exercise, objects of education, qualifications and duty of teachers, mental discipline, school discipline, school books, duty of parents, &c., &c., 162, 168, 217, 226, 324

PAGE.

Electro Magnetism as a motive power, report by a committee of the senate of the United States on the memorial of Professor Page, - 278
FENCES of wire, weight and cost of wire, cost per mile, cost of galvanizing, &c., - - - - 265
FINANCES of the United States, annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury, - - - - 137
FIRE, Great fire in St. Louis, - - 347
FLOUR.—Imports, exports and prices, - - - - 133—4
Vide commercial statistics, - -
Manufacture of in St. Louis, - 69
FONTAINBLEAU, Treaty of - - 72
FREE TRADE.—The theory illustrated by Judge Beatty, - - 121
FUR TRADE AMERICAN, History of its origin and progress, in a series of articles by J. Loughborough, 305, 313, 365
GALENA.—Its commerce, - - 339
GEOLOGICAL Survey of the stateof Missouri, memorial to Congress, history of legislation upon the subject, - - - - - - 333
GLASGOW, Mo. its commerce, &c., - 208
GOLD.—Effects of an increase of quantity - - 141, 204, 357
Quantity in the world, see coinage, Mint, &c., - - - - -
GRAPES.-Cultivation of, in Missouri, number of vineyards, quantity of wine made in other countries, quantity imported into the United States, - - - - - - 127
Grape culture in Indiana, quantity of land planted, produce of wine per acre, price of wine, treatment of the must, mode of cultivating, grafting &c., - - - 186
Grapes in Iowa, - - 385
GRATITUDE.—A leaf from the unpublished work of the senior editor, - - - - - - 348
Gypsum in Iowa, - - 378
HAY, quantity received in St. Louis, in 1848, - - - - - - 126
HEMP.—Imports and exports, for 5 years, - - - - 132–3
Imports for 4 months in 1847 and 1848, - - - - - 337
Comparative prices, - - - 134
HISTORY.—See Fur Trade, and natural history of man, - - -
HOGS.—See pork packing in the west, - - - - - - 338
HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.-St.Louis- 127

PAGE.

See grapes, strawberries,
Agricultural chemistry, &c., -
HORTICULTURE.-Conducive of happiness, - - - - - 57
HYBRIDIZATION AND CROSS FECUNDATION of plants, process and mode of producing hybrids, - 265
ILDEFONSO, St. treaty of - - 79
INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT.—A system for the west, - - 1
See roads, canals, &c.,
IRON.—Imports into St. Louis for 5 years, - - - - - - 122
Price of bar iron in Liverpool, from 1817 to 1849, - - - 272
Imports of iron under the tariffs of 1842 and 1846, - - - 274
Quantity required for the Pacific railway, - - - - 336
IOWA, ITS RESOURCES.—History, soils, minerals, vegetable products, population, towns, canals, rail roads, public schools, commerce, &c. 375
LABOR AND SKILL, advantages of their association, - - - 298
LACLEDE, the founder of St. Louis,- 74
LANDS.—Effects of exhausting it by a bad system of cultivation, - 56
Quantity of public land, in the states and territories, - - 137
LARD—Imports and exports - 132, 133
See commercial statistics.
LAW.—See commercial law cases, - 188
Missouri law of corporations, - - 353
Law of newspapers, - - - 280
Western Law Journal. - - 70
LEAD.—Imports and exports for 5 years, - - - - 132, 133
Quantity received in the first 4 months in 1848 and 1849, - 337
Comparative prices, - - 134
See Galena, 239
Lexington, Mo., its commerce, improvements, &c., statistics for 1848, . . . . 206
Lumber, quantity received in St. Louis in 1848, . . . 136
Magnetic Telegraph to the Pacific, 436
Magnetism, its utility as a motive power, See Electro Magnetism, . 278
Man, natural history of, . . 235
Manures. See Scottish Agriculture, . . . . 302
Manufacturing of Cotton in St. Louis, 69. Of cotton batting, 69. Of flour, ib. Enumeration of the principal manufacturing establishments in St. Louis, 83. Bon Harbor, its advantages for manufacturing cotton, iron, &c., 86. Advantages for manufacturing in Iowa, 380

PAGE

Massachusetts, railroads in, length, cost, income, expenses, and dividends on railroads, 65. Roads recently opened, new charters, amount of stock paid in, &c., 66. Wealth and prosperity of Massachusetts derived from her social institutions, education, banks, manufactures, and internal improvements, . . 355–7

Mechanics' Institute of St. Louis, . 298

Mills, flouring mills in St. Louis, . 69

Memorial of the General Assembly of Missouri in respect to a grant of land to aid in making a geological survey, . . . 333

Mint of the United States, 139, 198, 203, 274. See Coinage.

Money, quantity of specie in the world, 204. See Coins, Mint, Gold, &c.

Natural History. See Man.

Navigation. See early history of St. Louis, Eastern Commerce, boats, canals, Des Moines river, &c.

Newspapers, law of, . . 280

Oats. See Imports and Exports of St. Louis, 132–3. See Commercial Statistics, &c.

Orange Osage. Its culture, preparing seed, planting, heading down, &c., . . . . 266

Painting. See Fine Arts, . . 29

Panama; distances from London to Canton by the way of Panama compared with the Cape of Good Hope, 16. Railway from Panama to Chagres, . . . 346

Parkville, Mo., Statistics, . . 269

Peoria, statistics of population, manufactures, commerce, &c., . 267

Periodicals, . . 104, 348

Plank Roads; system of plank roads for Missouri, economy of plank roads, their history, cost, &c., 5, 6. Plank roads in Iowa, 382–3

Plants, physiological description of their roots, stems, leaves, sap, &c. 258

Platte city and county statistics, 269

Pork Packing in the West. Number of hogs slaughtered in the season of 1848–9 at the different points in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, 338. See Imports and Exports, 132–3. Commercial statistics, &c.

Public Domain; quantity of public lands in the several States and Territories, 137

PAGE

Public Schools. See Education, Iowa, &c.

Railroads. See "System of Internal Improvement for the West," 1–8. Rate of freight and fare on 68 railroads; railroads in Mass., length, cost, income, expense of running and dividends of 11 roads; new roads opened, charters, &c., 65–6. Tunnels on railroads in the United States and Europe, 67. Comparative rates of expenses to gross receipts, and comparative cost of mile run on various railways, 68. New method of constructing railroads, 209. Number of miles of railway, and cost of construction in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, and all the principal governments of Europe, 277. Ohio and Mississippi railroad, length, amount of stock subscribed, &c., 345. Railroads in Iowa, 384

Railway to the Pacific, 8. The subject examined as to its importance, comparison of routes, its benefits, &c., 105–121. Same subject continued from 148–161. Senator Benton's Bill, 189. Convention proposed, 216. Route through Missouri, 292

Railway from St. Louis to San Francisco. Project of P. P. E. Legrand, of Boston, Mass. 376

Project of a railway, from the valley of the Mississippi to the Pacific ocean, considered in its various aspects and bearings. By J. Loughborough, a member of the St. Louis Bar. 386

Railway across the isthmus of Panama. Aspenwall's project. 105

Length of line, grade, curves, synopsis of the charter, stock subscribed, &c. 346

Roofs, principle of constructing them, 178. Composition roofs, 279

Russia.—Treaty of commerce with China, overland trade, its value. 12

St Louis, its early history, first settlement, character of its inhabitants, its early commerce, population at different periods, great rise of the Mississippi river, 78. Its churches, schools, charitable institutions, revenue, &c., 72 to 86. Its manufactories, 69. Great fire, 347. See commercial statistics, Imports and exports, pacific railway, &c. Tabular statement of the assessment of taxes from 1817 to 1848, 136. Population in 1848, 209. Steam-boats built in 1848, 209

PAGE.

Schools, See education, 34 to 54. Schools and institutions of learning in St. Louis, 82. See education, 172 to 175, and 226. Agricultural school 334. Schools in Iowa, 377

Scottish Agriculture, 254 302

Selkirk's settlement, its history, 319

Sheep husbandry, proposition of H. Ancreen, of Mo., 131

Slaves and slavery, effects of emancipation in the West India Islands, 250, 251. Condition of southern slaves, 252. Proposition to colonize on the Pacific, 253. Suggestion as to the immigration of slaves to Central America, 253

Specie, quantity in the world, 204

Statistical associations, the advantages and importance of establishing a statistical society in St. Louis 159

Steam Boats, See Boats

Strawberries, mode of culture, profit, &c , 187

Sub-treasury, suggestions in regard to its modification 246-7

Sumach, its culture and uses, price and quantity used in the arts 181

PAGE.

Tariff, reflections on the tariff of 1846 by A. Hamilton 246

Tea, culture of, in South Carolina 186

Telegraph to the Pacific 436

Time, improvement of 45

Tobacco, see imports and exports 132 and 3. Commercial statistics 133 4 and 5 also 337

Towns, the principles which govern their growth 84

Tunnels on railroads and canals in the United States and in Europe 67

University of Missouri, 439. University of Louisville law department, 440

Western policy, 212

Wheat, see imports and exports, 132 and 3, commercial statistics 134 337

Wind, its force at different velocities and effect on buildings 178

Wine, quantity made in Missouri, and in various other countries, quantity produced per acre, quantity imported into the United States, &c, 129

Grape growing in Indiana, 186

Liberal premium offered by A. Kayser, Esq., to the grape growers of Missouri, for the best Missouri wine, 184

Wine in Iowa, 385

THE

WESTERN JOURNAL.

M. TARVER and T. F. RISK, Editors and Proprietors.

VOL. II. SEPTEMBER, 1849. NO. VI.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

ARTICLES.

I. THE ECONOMY OF SOCIAL COMBINATIONS—MISSOURI LAW OF CORPORATIONS.—Discoveries and improvements in physical science occasion a change in the economy and social relations of communities—necessity of social action—influence of the social institutions of Massachusetts on the prosperity of the state. Influence of the useful and ornamental arts upon commerce—production of gold in California,—its influence on the condition of Missouri—LAW PROVIDING FOR THE FORMATION OF CORPORATIONS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI.....
BY THE SENIOR EDITOR, 353

II. HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN FUR TRADE.—Government of the Bay Company—their survey—commandants, clerks, and voyageurs—number of their forts—Vancouver—report of Mr. Pelly—present state of the trade, and its profits—where furs are sent—their treatment of the Indians—rules of preserving animals—character of the voyaguers—their dress and habits—their hardships and toils—their food—account of Ross Cox—his extraordinary adventures when lost, with snakes, bears, and wolves—difficult navigation of the Columbia—starvation and cannabalism of certain voyaguers. BY J. LOUGHBOROUGH, a member of the St. Louis Bar..... 365

III. IOWA—ITS RESOURCES.—History of Iowa. Constitutional provision in respect to education—nature and amount of the education fund—organization of public schools—natural resources of the state—soil, minerals—vegetable productions, water courses—climate, internal improvements—public work on the Des Moines river---rail roads, plank roads---manufacturing and commercial advantages of Iowa---population---towns---public domain. Capacity of the state for the production of sugar, grapes &c. BY THE SENIOR EDITOR..... 375

IV. PACIFIC RAILWAY.—A brief review of eastern commerce; successive changes of the route from western Asia and from Europe to the east. History of the various projects for opening a route from Europe to China across the American continent---schemes of various routes across the isthmus of Panama, Tehuantepec &c., notice of project for navigating Missouri and Columbia rivers. Various projects for railway routes across the continent reviewed--suggestions in respect to several termini on the Mississippi river---causes which operate to change commercial routes. Distances, cost, and time of travel on the various routes from Europe and America to China compared. The means of constructing the road considered---cost of construction---cost of transportation on this route from Europe to China. The political, moral and commercial advantages of establishing communication by railway and telegraph across the central portion of the continent.....
BY J. LOUGHBOROUGH, member of the St. Louis Bar. 384

TELEGRAPH TO THE PACIFIC OCEAN.—Advantages and utility considered---plan proposed for transporting the mail to the Pacific---through the agency of military posts. By..... 435

LITERARY INSTITUTIONS OF THE WEST.

UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI..... 439
JONES' COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF ST. LOUIS..... 439
LOUISVILLE UNIVERSITY..... 440
TO PATRONS AND CONTRIBUTORS..... 440